TO BE EXPLAINED

Although the street railway on 24th Street is laid to Alberta avenue, and thence to the city hall, beyond Albany, the recent terminus, it is only electrified to Brazeau, three blocks north of Albany, and not half way to Alberta.

Unless present plans are changed either the Interurban cars will have to run over the city tracks from Alberta to Brazeau or there will be a gap of five blocks between the end of the city's electric service and the end of the tracks of the Interurban. The actions of the council and commissioners regarding the Interurban connection have been so peculiar that the situation calls for remarks.

We have laid a mile of track only half of which the city will operate, and none of which was of pressing necessity unless as part of an extension to Calder, which extension the city not only declined to make but excluded every subterfuge to prevent the Interurban from making. An explanation from the council or commissioners concerned is strictly in order.

THE CONSUMER'S CLAIM TO CONSIDERATION

The government calculator tells us that the cost of living in Canada went up nearly a fourth last month. A contributing cause is said to be the free admission of Canadian cattle and dairy products to the United States, which has driven the large proportion of the already limited supply and thus tended to make such products dearer in Canada.

So far as this has been a contributing factor, the added hardship to the Canadian consumer has been accompanied by and caused by a new advantage to the Canadian farmer. Adopting even the language of restriction, the benefit which the farmer has received the consumer is receiving too.

Well, what does the government propose to do about it? Previous to their elevation the ministers claimed to have great compassion on the consumer and to have a lively desire to save him from an increase in the cost of keeping his family. One of the grounds upon which they could demand reciprocity was that the free admission of Canadian farm products to the United States would increase the cost of such commodities in Canada, in other words, that the Canadian consumer would have to pay for any advantage gained by the farmer. There can be no doubt that the constituents were the majority of the voters were not farmers this appeal to the self-interest of the consumer was a powerful one in deciding the election. Those to whom it was addressed had every right to suppose that if they elected Mr. Borden and his friends they would be saved from any increase in the cost of living by reason of the free admission of Canadian farm products to the United States so far as the cost of the Canadian Parliament could save them from this consequence.

The condition they claimed to apprehend having come about, what do the ministers propose to do to relieve it? The framers of the reciprocal arrangement designed to avoid this condition by making a substantial reduction in the duty on a large number of manufactured articles and other necessities of the domestic establishment. The Borden Government may accomplish the same thing by the same means, if they see fit. The cost of living is not determined by the cost of beef and dairy products. These are only items in a very long list of commodities whose cost has to enter into the cost of living. The cost of the cost of these items on a family bill of fare has gone up by reason of the free admission of such products to the United States. The ministers have tried to lead the public to expect that those who expressed such deep concern lest this should come about would equalize matters by reducing the level on other household necessities. It will be interesting to note how far the ministers keep faith with the consumer, in whose welfare they were so convincingly concerned and by whose vote they got into power.

A MISTAKEN JUDGE

A Vancouver dispatch says that Judge Morrison has wired the Minister of the Interior insisting that the writ of habeas corpus issued by his court for the purpose of staying deportation proceedings in the case of a Hindu immigrant be respected. Judge Morrison has apparently either failed to read the Immigration Act or he possessed of the opinion that his order is above the law. There is a like surprise coming to him as came to the Montreal judges who issued a writ to protect Harry Thackeray from deportation. Laws are made by Parliament to empower and direct judges, and necessarily therefore to limit their authority. That until an immigrant has been technically "landed" in Canada, or, in other words, has been officially accepted by the immigration authorities, is a jurisdiction which the judge must protect him against exclusion or deportation by those authorities. Perhaps that is not a good law; but it is the law, and applies to both Judge Morrison and the Minister of the Interior.

The rate-payers will, of course, approve the action of the council in voting five hundred dollars toward the fund being raised for the relief of the families of sailors drowned during the recent storm on the lakes.

The Toronto Globe complains that the police department of that city has been unable to lay hands upon criminals of the more serious character, and displays its activity only in gathering in the small fry of offenders. The Toronto Globe says that there are of almost daily occurrence in that city, and adds that practically none of the murderers are hanged and very few of them jailed. Edmonton rate-payers may be able to extract some comfort from this testimony that they are not the only people in Canada who pay for police protection which they do not get.

Rate-payers generally will commend the decision of the council to provide at the city's expense for the holding of public meetings during the municipal campaign. The cost will not be large in comparison with the next year's council will spend. It would be fully for the sake of saving the smaller sum to deprive the taxpayers of the privilege of finding out how the prospective aldermen propose to spend the larger amount. Neither is it fair, or desirable, that the candidates should be obliged to provide for the holding of their own expense. The municipal campaign is a necessary incident to the proper carrying on of civic affairs, and it is proper that the city should bear the cost of it—always remembering, of course, that there is a reasonable limit.

The action of the public school board in making the assembly halls of the schools available for public meetings is a move in the right direction. Hitherto the costly buildings have been in use only six hours per day, five days in the week during three-fourths of the year. Every evening, and on a number of days in the week, they have been standing idle, while those who pay their cost and upkeep have had to hire halls in which to hold meetings.

That the schools are being used, from the money standpoint, to devote such costly buildings to so little use, neither is it wise to neglect the opportunity to have the schools outside of the interest to parents as well as to pupils. Why not, for instance, establish branch public libraries and public reading rooms in the basements of the buildings?

A couple of weeks ago the Calgary council granted an extension of time during which the ten per cent discount would be allowed on taxes. A day or so later the newspapers were explaining that when they granted the concession the aldermen did not apprehend that large taxpayers would instruct their bankers to refuse payment of the checks they had mailed to the city assessor before learning of the extension. Last Saturday the mayor and aldermen of Edmonton resolved on a similar extension of the period of grace. Complaints have been heard since that certain parties who did not expect any extension borrowed the necessary cash last week to secure the discount, whereas they could have paid this week without borrowing, and thus saved the interest also. Truly, the aldermen's lot is not a happy one.

Complain has been made that the city building by-law has not been enforced in respect to a building on the South Side partly destroyed by fire. Complaints in a similar vein might be made in respect to other buildings. One glaring case of misallocation occurred in connection with the straightening of Elizabeth street. An old rattle-trap frame structure formerly stood on the corner of Elizabeth and Nanaway. Its removal was necessary to the straightening of the street. Predecessor suggested that the only thing to do with it was to tear it down. Instead, it was removed to the corner of Kindisno and St. Andrew, and dumped down on a corner lot right opposite a church and in the midst of a residential district. That was months ago. There the thing stands, and this day, practically as it arrived, neither occupied nor occupiable, an eye-sore to the neighborhood and a disgrace to the authorities.

Remarked on the Side
An assistant in one of the stores in an Alberta village is reported to have found a very convenient opening for himself last week, when he stepped on a cellar door that wasn't there. Nothing worse than a black eye resulted.

The Cochrane Advocate announces with commendable caution that "considerable interest" is being taken in a school that is said to be under construction in certain quarters. Such a scheme, if carried through, will prove of great benefit to the town. But, hush! Not another word.

Some householders in Calgary who were invited by a chimney sweep for a day in recompense for his services, appealed to their license inspector, who said that the recognized price was $4.75. That was certainly a sweeping reduction.

A farmer of Killam who has neighbors all told him he was cutting his wheat too green has been getting No. 1 Northern right along for his grain. It seems a puzzle to know when grain is ripe for the sickle, or as an eye might say, to choose the sicklelogical moment.

In an Alberta village one of the neighbors, whose name begins with "Dax. D." is soliciting grinding work, and is able truthfully to assure prospective customers that he will make a Dan. D. job of it.

The Leduc paper thinks that perhaps the quickest way to raise money for town scales would be to place the last end of the rollers and then tackle the unmannered clerks to make up the deficiency. The latter certainly ought to see in the project a chance to give themselves away.

The backsliders of Bruce are to be excused if they continue of the opinion that there is no particular hurry. A couple who got married the other day were aged 73 and 71 respectively.

THOSE CHECKS

What even Conservative newspapers regret is the notorious Macdonald-election has not by its sequel, Mr. Alex. Morrison, who took his seat in the House of Commons last session under the slogan of "the government members have been deprived of their homes by the newspapers." There is something extremely humorous about the admission of defeat by the Conservative government. It is probable that there never was a more corrupt election held in Canada.

In order that John Robert Rogers, ex-Borden chief, must feel very uncomfortable if he has any remembrance of the election of 1906, he should recall that three years ago of policy in regard to corrupt practices elected the House of Commons at the time Mr. R. L. Richardson, the Liberal candidate for the House of Commons at the time, was elected. He was elected by a vote of 1,000 to 1,000.

The hilarious cheers of the Tories when Alex. Morrison took his seat in the House of Commons last session for Macdonald's son-in-law today.

News of the District

DAYSLAND
Fire broke out in the warehouse of White & Orr's hardware store on Monday at noon. Sam Anderson was on his way home to dinner, when he saw the smoke issuing from the store. He at once gave the alarm to Mr. Orr, the proprietor. They found the cause of the fire was a gas lamp. The fire was under control before the fire engine arrived on the scene. The estimated loss was $10,000. The cause of the fire is thought to be spontaneous combustion in a pile of kerosene in the building.

A social dance will be held in St. Andrew's hall, Dayland, on Friday evening, November 21. The dance is furnished by the Dayland orchestra. The invitations are now out and the lovers of skating had another enjoyable time on Friday night. The weather was ideal and the ice was in good shape.

The Rev. H. M. Horricks, M.A., and Rev. J. McKenney, pastor of the Presbyterian church, have been elected to the "Canadian Bible Society." The idea was to make the people complain with the work of the society and also to gain their aid in helping on the good work.

Dairymen and Creamery Managers All Over Alberta Meet at Olds

Grading Station Will Likely be Established in Edmonton Next Year

By Bulletin Staff Reporter.

Olds, Nov. 20.—Dairymen and managers of creameries from all over Alberta met in convention here today to discuss problems affecting dairying industry.

The size and importance of the dairying industry in the province and the importance of dairy business and the increasing importance of dairying which being paid by farmers to the dairymen as a side line or something to provide pin money for the farmer. It has become one of Alberta's main industries.

This fact was emphasized by Hon. Duncan Marshall, vice, Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture and stock raising, dairy commissioner and other speakers.

Some Statistics.
Some surprising figures were given by Mr. Marshall, deputy minister of agriculture, who showed that while the grain industry of the province in 1913 yielded to Alberta farmers $12,579,941, the dairying industry yielded $12,579,941, the dairying industry yielded $12,579,941.

Under the extension of the grading system a grading station will probably be established next year in Edmonton. Creamery representatives urged the importance of grading the Alberta product to compete with the New Zealand butter which has grade certificate.

RETAIL PRICES OF FOODS HIGHEST IN THE LAST 23 YEARS

Cost of Living in United States Reached Climax on August Fifteenth

PRICES ARE 61 PER CENT HIGHER THAN IN 1890-1899

Twelve Staple Articles Show Increase While Three Show Decrease in Price

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—Retail prices of foods were higher on August 15th than they have been at any time during the last twenty-three years, according to figures recently issued by the Labor Statistics bureau. Retail prices of the principal articles of food in forty important industries, authorized and compiled by experts, show that during the year twelve of the articles advanced in price while only three declined.

Comparison of retail prices of August 15, 1913, with prices on the same date in 1912 shows potatoes advanced 26 per cent, bacon 18.8 per cent, smoked ham 17.4 per cent, eggs 12.3 per cent, round steak 11.5 per cent, chicken 10.1 per cent, pork chops 2.3 per cent, beans 2.5 per cent, lard 2.1 per cent, rib roast 1.9 per cent, butter 6.7 per cent, and milk 2.7 per cent.

Butter declined 7.2 per cent, wheat flour 5.5 per cent, and corn meal 2.7 per cent.

When compared with average prices for the ten year period, 1890 to 1899, every article for which prices were noted, with the exception of sugar, advanced.

When the price of each of the fifteen articles of food is distributed according to average consumption, the workmen's families retail prices on August 15, 1913, were 61 per cent above the average price for the ten years, 1890 to 1899.

1913 Biggest Construction Year In History of the City

In spite of the money stringency, difficulties in marketing a big bond issue and other handicaps, the city of Edmonton can point to 1913 as being the biggest construction year so far in its history.

In practically every department the work done during the construction season just closed has exceeded that done last year, while in the laying of sewer and water mains, and in paving, grading, boulevarding and street railway track-laying, last year's figures were doubled.

The following table shows at a glance the city work done in 1913 as compared with 1912, and also gives the approximate total miles of the various improvements laid in the city:

Improvements.	Miles in 1913.	Miles in 1912.	Total Miles in city.
Sewer mains.	26.1	13.4	109.1
Water mains.	37.4	16.9	124.4
Paving.	22.2	11.7	41.6
Phone conduits.	10.2	8.0	19.0
Concrete walks.	10.88	10.99	35.1

San Juan Settlers Fear An Attack By Navajo Indians

Chief of Rebels in Beautiful Mountain Fastnesses in New Mexico Declares Band Will Not Surrender But Will Fight—U. S. Cavalry Has Not Yet Arrived

Farmington, New Mexico, Nov. 20.—Hoe, doing scout duty, reported that several Indian runners had left Bonanza Mountain for remote points on the reservation to urge other members of the tribe, not concerned in the present movement, to join the band of renegades. Settlers along the San Juan river and in the vicinity of remote points on the reservation have appealed to Agent Sheehan for protection, fearing that the Indians may attempt an offensive movement before the arrival of the cavalry. The agency force also shares this fear, and extra precautions have been taken to guard against possible attack.

H.B. ROUTE WILL NOT HANDLE 20 CARGOES GRAIN IN 20 YEARS

This is Opinion of Sir Wm. V. Horne, Former Director of C. P. R.

SAVE PANAMA CANAL NO BENEFIT TO ALBERT

Favors Building of Hudson Bay Railway to Show Country Its Impracticability

Montreal, Nov. 20.—In an interview regarding the possibilities of the Hudson Bay route, and also regarding the Panama Canal, Sir William V. Horne expressed the opinion that while the Panama Canal ought to be built, it would not be a good thing for the British Columbia timber trade, he did not think that Canadian wheat would be sent by the canal route, "it would be impossible," he declared.

However, Sir William stated his belief that not more than twenty cargoes of Canadian grain would be carried out by the Hudson Bay route in twenty years. Sir William, however, declared that he was in favor of the building of the Hudson Bay railway.

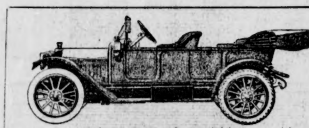

"I am, and always have been, heartily in favor of the construction of this railway," he said. "Chiefly because it is the only route which will settle in the public mind the question of transportation in that direction. When I do not believe that twenty cargoes of Canadian grain will be shipped by that route in twenty years, it is just as well to know precisely what the possibilities are in that direction. If the route is ultimately found to be impractical, too attention may be given to more effective means of transportation."

"When asked concerning the financial situation, Sir William became humorous, but non-committal: 'You ought to interview somebody who has some money,' he said. 'I don't know how to get money, I'd get it. I have no financial theories any more.'"

"My ideas of political economy are extremely simple," Sir William added. "To spend less than you earn, or rather, not to spend more than you earn."

Grain, Financial and Commercial Markets

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

Financial Post, Nov. 19.—With a heavy harvest and the return from a very profitable year, coming forward the inevitable result will be a very large surplus. Those banks which have been in a very tight position in the Canadian West are in the happy position of "having money." For the time being, however, a number of commercial banks reporting have a fine reduction of their loan credits. This may be due to special causes. Conditions at the present time are not so good as in the past. It is not so far as money conditions are concerned. The peak of the crop movement should now be passed. In addition to the loan in this respect there is a marked tendency on the part of the entire Dominion to economize. Stocks are being cut down, and the greatest section is being exercised by all classes of buyers all over the Dominion. To our minds in order to avoid a crash as trade and commerce is now passing through a seasonal.

Another cause for some hope as to a cash money is the clearing up of the situation with regard to the attitude of the European powers as to Mexico. With credit from that country secured, some anxiety has been removed from the London market. Until confidence is restored there is special confidence in Canadian securities. Such recently has been the case that it is not likely that there will be a money condition such as can be reasonably expected as normal.

Some temporary pressure in the Dominion may be felt, as the "window dressing" by the banks preparatory to the closing of the year. This consideration, however, and other tendencies which affect the supply of credit, there is not any to be any way for pessimism. Canadian money months will be very necessary.

WINNING GRAIN MARKETS

By Bulletin Leased Wire. WINNIPEG, Nov. 20.—The wheat market acted somewhat erratic, the opening being firm, but the market soon turned to a heavy offload of pool cash and good continental demand. The market settled at a low level, the late hours of business. The volume of business transacted in options was higher than Wednesday. The market opened 1-8 to 1-4 higher and closed 2-3 lower to 1-2 up for Chicago. Chicago closed unchanged, 1-3 1/2 to 1-4 higher for July. Minneapolis opened 1-4 higher and closed unchanged to 1-4 higher. The cash demand for wheat was only fair, heavy offloadings and exports bid in late. Cash wheat were in fair demand, but no better grades stronger. Cash corn closed unchanged. Cash barley closed 1-2 to 1 cent higher. Deliveries through the clearing houses: Wheat, 32,000 bushels; corn, 41,000 bushels; and flax, 1,000 bushels. Speculations Wednesday totaled 174 cars against 1603 last year, and in 1910.

WINNING GRAIN MARKETS

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 20.—The market opened at 1-1 to 1-2 advance. It did not hold, but the market continued selling pressure largely from United States points. There is, however, a good demand for the higher grades and strength in corn and wheat. Active trade doing moderately well in cash. Receipts were unusually large here, 715 cars inspected and 1200 in sight. American receipts—Minneapolis, 579; Duluth, 411; Chicago, 441. There was a moderate cash demand with offering heavy and export bids a little out of line. The export market, however, is very active, and the strength is being maintained. The market closed—Winnipeg, 2-5 to 1-2 up; Paris, 1-4 to 1-2 up; Berlin, 1-3 lower; London, 1-4 to 1-2 up and Albany 2-10.

137 CO-OPERATIVE ELEVATORS WERE OPERATED IN 1913

Huge Growth Recorded by Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company

SHAREHOLDERS INCREASE FROM 2,900 TO 9,000 IN YEAR

Company May Expand and Engage in Distribution of Coal, Flax, Etc.

Regina, Sask., Nov. 19.—Reviewing the brief history of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company, which is holding its annual meeting here today, a wonderful rate of development is apparent. The first year the company operated forty-one elevators, with 2,900 shareholders, and handled three and a quarter million bushels of grain. During the second season's business, which closed on July 31, 1913, the company operated 137 elevators, handled 5,382 bushels of grain, and thirteen million bushels of grain were handled. This year the company has 125 elevators, the number of shareholders being 9,000. This record of progress is a matter of congratulation for all concerned, and is most gratifying both to the shareholders and to the officials in charge.

Last year a commission department was established in Winnipeg, connected with the Regina office by private line, the idea being to handle the grain of the company's supporters right through to the head of the lake by means of a special line of the coast elevator and the handling of the grain by the company.

Winnipeg. This department has proved an unequalled success, and thirteen million bushels were handled in this manner to the complete satisfaction of the shippers.

There is an increasing demand on the part of the shareholders that the company should engage in other lines of business, such as the supply of coal, flour and other staples. Nothing has been done in this direction hitherto, owing to the fact that the company's resources have been fully employed in coping with the grain business.

This will be fully discussed at the annual meeting today. Up to September 28, the company has handled considerably over a million bushels of grain, and the grain is for sale to handle the business in a more favorable condition than usual. Last year, in particular, a large amount of money was loaned to the farmers of Saskatchewan to enable them to carry over the grain, but this year, up to the present time, all signs would indicate that there will be a total absence of this class of grain.

In the future, if the company is located elsewhere it is still to establish at all points not adequately served. Grain elevators have always been used to ship their own grain, and therefore the storage site of elevators is adapted for those who mean to ship it. The company is now building a new elevator at Regina, and this policy is being carried out.

Mr. McPherson, vice president of the company, said that the company is now building a new elevator at Regina, and this policy is being carried out. The company is now building a new elevator at Regina, and this policy is being carried out.

Ritchie's Real Boxer After Bout With Cross

Gotham Scribes Unanimous in Opinion That Champion Willis is One of the Best Lightweights Produced in America in Recent Years—Bout From Some of the Papers

Willie Ritchie has fought so infrequently since he won the lightweight championship from Ad. Walcott, that his first fight was beginning to think that he had nothing to show for himself, and was stalling off the evil day when he would be absolutely forced into it.

In testing Leach Cross in New York Ritchie showed that he had championship caliber, and was not so easily beaten as he had been in the past. He was a young Corbett or a Terry McEvoy, or an Abe Attell, or a Joe Desha of the other days—but a sure enough champion, according to the New York papers.

According to the Metropolitan critics, Ritchie showed, first of all, ability to take punishment. He assimilated heavy punches and sent them right back. He is an exceptionally clean boxer. None could be cleaner, says one sport writer. The rules had been laid down for him and he never swerved from them.

There is no doubt about his being the best lightweight of the country that has produced in recent years, but it is not the master of the art that McPherson is by a very large majority. It may be that Freddie Welsh can whip him, but those around the ring last night "are from Missouri."

Ritchie's left hand showed useful movement, though he has a short, snappy right which when it lands squarely, is surely damaging. His footwork is nothing extraordinary—at least he did not show it last night. That he is an all day fighter, certainly, for he was good and strong at the finish, comparing with his opponent, though both showed marked effects of the fight. Had Leach Cross been trained up to be ready, Ritchie would have been decisively, as Cross was slowly and steadily weakened.

It is admitted that Ritchie has failings. He moves opportunistically, and is not as clever as McPherson, nor nearly so. He can be hit, and that frequently, at least Cross hit him last night, and his jabbing is not so snappy and severe as that of the Englishman. He has a good right hand, but a punch he has nothing behind it that he has in his cross. One excellent feature of his fight, that he handled the fight well, and that he was whole force behind a blow unless he was reasonably sure it is going to find its mark.

Here are some of the heaviest headed Ritchie by the New York Press: "New York Tribune: 'Ritchie is every inch the monarch of his class.' " "New York Herald: 'A splendid success to Kid Lavigne, Joe Jones and others of the great champions.' " "New York World: 'Ritchie showed courage—a high order and a good measure of it—against a boxer who is a high order of the game.' " "New York Sun: 'It was a great fight. It will take a great fighter with a knock-out punch to beat Ritchie.' " "New York American: 'Cross fought a great fight, but he was meeting a real champion.' " "New York Journal: 'It was ten rounds of the old-time blood and brawn and delirium. Ritchie was a credit to the name.' " "New York Evening Post: 'Cross fought as if for life. There is no question as to the best lightweight of recent years.' " "New York Globe: 'Ritchie as a boxer stands in bold relief before his class. A fighter he ranks higher than the durable Dan.' " "Evening World: 'Ritchie met Cross at his own game, outwitted him, outboxed him, outgassed him, met with rash and walkout with his own, and won a real fight.' " "Evening Sun: 'Ritchie might have boxed prettily and won easily, but he chose to show that he could fight.' " "Evening Mail: 'The best boxer of the Pacific coast swept away all doubt of his ability as a legitimate champion.' "

The action of the Oxford Athletic Club in barring Rhodes scholars who have attended universities in their own country from competing in certain sports within the college is being strongly criticized by the English press and by students at Oxford itself. The action seems to have been taken by the officials of the club without the sanction of the governing body, and the opinions of the students in general, or, indeed, without consideration of anyone's opinion except that of the English athletes who found themselves let out of the college in the sports recently held.

While it is no doubt just to a certain extent, that men who have trained themselves in their own country should be allowed to compete with freshmen from the English preparatory schools, but the restriction placed by the athletic club goes a long way beyond that. The restriction that should have been placed, if any at all, on the freshmen is that they should be given the same age limit as the other students. It is reasonable to believe. The criticism in the old country is chiefly that Oxford is guarding its English born alumni against overseas invaders and at the same time accepting the aid of the invaders against Cambridge.

To the Ratepayers and Tenants of the City of Edmonton

Ladies and Gentlemen:—At the request of a number of the recognized best business men of this City to offer myself as a candidate for aldermanic honors at the forthcoming city election, I have consented to do so.

I have been a resident of Edmonton since 1902 and believe that I should be able to do good work as a member of the City Council. If you, the electors, choose to elect me, I will most assuredly appreciate your confidence and support.

Should I be elected I have only one promise to make, and that is, that I will endeavor to serve the City, and the City only, to the best of my ability.

That a plebiscite should be taken before the next session of the Legislature to obtain the views of the electors on the question of Municipal Government by Elective Commission, meets with my approval.

Yours respectfully,
J. R. MCINTOSH

Around the City

The McDonald-Epworth League skating club will meet at Central Park tonight. All members are invited to attend.

The Men's Association of McDonald Church will debate in their parlors at eight o'clock sharp tonight on the resolution: "That it is in the best interests of the City of Edmonton to abolish the elective commission form of government." All men are welcome.

Commercial Lodge, U.D., A. F. & M., will hold their inauguration and banquet on Saturday evening, November 22nd. B.W. Bro. D. G. Condon, H. M. Bro. J. H. Smith, and J. H. Smith will officiate. A special invitation is extended to all Masonic brethren.

"Self-Heating by the Power of Mind" will be the subject of the New Thought Society of the city at their meeting in Blue Moon Tea Room on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. All New Thought students and others interested are cordially invited.

Ready for Cold Weather.—The members of the main squad of the city police force received their winter uniforms on Saturday evening, November 21st. The whole of the winter clothing will be distributed in a day or two.

Commissioner Harrison and City Engineer Lattin left last night for Calgary and Medicine Hat to study the handling of natural gas and the contracts under which companies are operating in those districts. They expect to be gone the remainder of the week only.

The High Level Skating Rink which opened on Fifth avenue S.W. was flooded for the first time on Tuesday. The mild weather was not a very strong inducement toward the formation but the colder atmosphere which prevailed last night, and which is likely to last for a few days, will make it.

M. L. Williams, public school teacher at Poken, who was arrested some time ago on a charge of impersonating a doctor, is being held in custody toward a trial, alleged to be a matter, was honorably acquitted. ## INSPECTING AGENCIES.

The legislation passed early in the February session after revision for the running of employment agencies has been the means of doing considerable to end down the illegal practices which previously had been rampant.

When seen at the delirious Hotel Mr. J. H. Complaints are received occasionally and these cases when seen on earth are dealt with harshly and the office is scarcely ever repeated. Mr. J. H. Smith is spending a few days in the city before going West.
